

Week #29

April 12, 2010

American Studies / Language Arts

In American Studies this week, we study Chapter 14, the period of Reconstruction after the Civil War.

In language arts, we work on preparing for the Unit 7 assessment. Students will get an outline of terms and concepts they need to know for the assessment that will be given in about three weeks.

Monday –

- Reading Logs due
- Work on Lincoln's Second Inaugural Address memorization
- Civil War film clips
- Work on GRA 14-1, 14-2
- Work on "Barbara Frietchie" and sensory detail

Tuesday –

- Lincoln's Second Inaugural study period: background vocabulary and main ideas
- Clauses: Grammar Lesson 8-2 (review)

Wednesday (2 periods, Am Studies)

- "Barbara Frietchie" assignment / notes due
- Promotion letter, plans and activities
- Discuss, assign and work on the Civil War unit project, due April 21

Thursday (2 periods language arts)

- Connotation and denotation, Word Wise pages 57-58
- Grammar Lessons 8-3 and 8-4

Friday

- Lincoln's Second Inaugural Address memorization quiz and main ideas assignment due
- GRA 14-1, 14-2 due. Work on GRA 14-3, 14-4.
- Introduction – Tom Sawyer and read Chapter 1