

American History Review Program Highlights

Review the topics below in preparation for the STAR test. Choose ____ of the terms and topics, and write a two – three sentence explanation of what it is and why it’s important. For extra credit, choose an extra five or ten terms, and write an explanation of what it means and why it’s important.

1. Mayflower Compact, p. 120
2. Common Sense, p. 150
3. Declaration of Independence, p. 164
4. Articles of Confederation, p. 178, 181
5. Enlightenment, John Locke, p. 203
6. The Constitution, Federalism, the three branches, checks and balances, Federalists and Anti-federalists, pp. 203 – 207
7. The Constitution Preamble, principles and Bill of Rights, pp. 219 – 223
8. Checks and Balances, and How a Bill Becomes a Law, pp. 228 – 229
9. The Federalist Papers, James Madison, p. 242
10. Washington’s Farewell, p. 289
11. The First Two Political Parties, Federalists and Democratic - Republicans, p. 292
12. Marbury vs. Madison, p. 309
13. The Louisiana Purchase, Lewis and Clark, pp. 314 – 315
14. The War of 1812, the Star Spangled Banner and the Attack on Washington, D.C., pp. 356 – 359
15. The Monroe Doctrine, p. 367
16. Industrial Revolution, the cotton gin, p. 383
17. Reform movements: Second Great Awakening, Horace Mann, Dorothea Dix, Seneca Falls, Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Susan B. Anthony, pp. 402 – 410
18. Anti-slavery: Frederick Douglass, Harriett Tubman, p. 437
19. Documents of American History, pp. 850 – 861