Exploratory sign-ups for the 2010-2011 school year

Interested in Yearbook? Attention 6th & 7th grade students: Do you like taking pictures, like making scrapbooks, or like the idea of interviewing people? Yearbook may be the right elective for you. Ms. Hanson-Smith and the yearbook staff are looking for talented staff members for next year. Applications will be due to Ms. Hanson-Smith in K2 on March 22nd.

Interested in becoming a Teachers Aide? Attention 6th & 7th grade students: If you are interested in becoming a Teacher's Aide next year, please contact those teachers directly.

Interested in Leadership? Applications are available in the RHMS library and must be returned to the library by 3:00 PM on Monday, March 22, 2010. Any student interested in running for a student council office (president, vice-president, secretary, or treasurer) must first be approved as a member of the team. Since we aren't sure if Leadership will be an exploratory class or an after-school group, there is an option on the as to what works best for you.

Interested in becoming an Office Aide? The Office is looking for responsible student's who would like to apply for an Office Aide job for the 2010-2011 year. If interested, please pick up an application in the office and return it to Mrs. Lee with an attached essay by Monday, March 16th.

Attention current 7th grade art lovers!! Advanced art is in place of exploratory, and is for the entire 8th grade year. Art enthusiasts (regardless of skill or experience) are encouraged to apply. Students will be selected to draw, paint and sculpt in advanced art next year! Applications are due on March 19th. See Mrs. Kamman in G1 if you have questions.
